MANUAL

OF THE

Presbytery of Orange.

SECTION I

Historical and Geographical.

1. The Presbytery of Orange is the oldest of the existing Presbyteries in the southern assembly, and there are only four of the existing Presbyteries connected with the northern assembly that are older, viz: Philadelphia, New Castle, New York and New Brunswick. In the order of formation, however, Orange was the seventeenth Presbytery formed after the subdivision of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, in 1717.

The Orange Presbytery was set off from the Presbytery of Hanover, Va., in 1770, by the Synod of New York and Phi[illegible] phia. The first six named ministers on the roll given below, comprising the original Presbytery, were all members of the Hanover Presbytery. To these the Synod added a seventh member, viz: Hezekiah James Balch, distinguished for services rendered by him in the cause of civil liberty, as well as Presbyterianism in North Carolina.

The first meeting of the Presbytery of Orange, was held at the Hawfields Church, in (then) Orange County, N C., September 5th. 1770. The REV. HENRY PATILLO, preached the opening sermon, and the REV. DAVID CALDWELL was appointed Stated Clerk.

The territory of the Presbytery of Orange then extended indefinitely to the South and West from the Virginia boundary, but practically, only the State of North Carolina, East of the Blue Ridge, and the upper part of South Carolina, were occupied by its ministers. There was at a very early period, a Presbytery in South Carolina and Georgia, which had no ecclesiastical connection with the Synod, and, as in the case of MESSRS. JAMES CAMPBELL and JAMES

EDMONDS, NINTH and TENTH on the roll, ministers were occasionally received from that body into Orange. (See Records of the Presbyterian Church, p p 409,451. Howe's History of Presbyterian church in S. C.)

It is a matter of deep, though vain regret, that the Records of the Presbytery of Orange, embracing the first twenty-five years of its existence, are lost; also the Records covering the interval from 1812 to 1827, a gap altogether of forty years! These Records were destroyed by fire, together with the house of Dr. John Witherspoon, Stated Clerk, near Hillsboro, N. C.,on January 1st, 1827. This irreparable loss rendered the preparation of the roll of members, from the beginning in 1770, through this period a less easy task than it would have been otherwise. All available collateral sources of information have been used, but still it is probable that there are omissions of unknown names, and it is certain that many of the earlier dates can only be approximated. The first and oldest record of a meeting of Orange Presbytery, now known to be in existence, is dated "New Hope Church, Orange county, N. C., November 18, 1795."

The changes which have occurred since the organization in 1770, in territory, boundaries &c., to the present time, are as follows:

1. In 1784 the Presbytery of SOUTH CAROLINA was set off by the Synod, from Orange and the following detached members of the Presbytery of Orange met at the Waxhaws S. C., in April 1785, and held their first meeting, viz:

Rev. Joseph Alexander,
" Francis Cummins,
" James Edmonds,
" John Harriss,
" Thomas Reese,
" John Simpson.

The State line between North and South Carolina now became the southern boundary of Orange.

2. In 1795 the Presbytery of CONCORD was set off from Orange by the Synod of the Carolina's. The Yadkin River was made the line of division, Concord embracing the territory west, and Orange, East of this line. The Presbytery of Concord, thus set off, held its first meeting at Bethphage Church, December 24, 1795, and was composed of the following detached members from Orange, viz.:

Revs. Samuel E. McCorkle D. D., James Hall, James McRee, David Barr, Samuel C. Caldwell, James Wallis, Joseph D. Kilpatrick, Lewis F. Wilson, John Carrigan, Humphrey Hunter, John Makemie Wilson, Alexander Caldwell.

3. In 1812 the Synod of the Carolina's set off from Orange the Presbytery of FAYETTEVILLE, embracing the territory lying south of the following line, viz: Mouth of Neuse River—to the Junction with Trent River, thence direct to the Junction of the Deep and Haw Rivers—thence direct to the mouth of the Uharrie River on the Yadkin. The following detached ministers from Orange composed the new Presbytery, viz:

Revs. Samuel Stanford, William L. Turner, Malcom McNair, Murdock McMillan, John McIntyre, William B. Meroney, Allen McDougald, William Peacock.

Mr. Meroney, however, having removed out of the bounds of the new Presbytery before its first meeting, was never actually a member.

It was during this year (1812) that the Synod of the Carolinas was dissolved, and during the year following (1813) the Synod of North Carolina was formed, comprising the Presbyteries of Orange, Concord and Fayetteville, and the first meeting of Synod was held at Alamance Church in Orange.

4. In 1835 the Synod of North Carolina set off in the eastern portion of Orange, by a line running along the western boundaries of the Counties of Granville and Wake, a new Presbytery, called the Presbytery of ROANOKE. The following detached ministers from Orange composed this New Presbytery, viz:

Revs. William McPheeters, Samuel L. Graham, Jesse Rankin, Nehemiah H. Harding, Sidney Weller, Alexander Wilson, Drury Lacy, Joseph A. Gray, William A. Shaw.

The first meeting was held in Washington, N. C., March 31, 1836, and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Samuel L. Graham.

5 In 1839 the Presbytery of ROANOKE was dissolved, and its Ministers, Churches and Territory were re-united to the Presbytery of Orange by the Synod of North Carolina.

6. In 1866 the General Assembly transferred that portion of the territory of Orange lying in the State of Virginia south of Dan River, to the Synod of Virginia, to be attached to the Presbytery of Roanoke in Virginia. The Ministers and Churches transferred from Orange with this territory, were as follows, viz:-

MINISTERS—Revs. John M. Kirkpatrick F. N. Whaley, John B. Shearer.

CHURCHES—Danville, Clarksville, Spring Hill, Pennel.

The State line then became the boundary line of Orange on the north.

7. In 1889 the Synod of North Carolina set off from Orange the Presbytery of ALBEMARLE, embracing that portion of Orange lying east of the western boundaries of the Counties of Granville and Wake. This division was made under the protest of a majority of the members of the old Orange, and is practically the same territory which formed Roanoke in 1835. The following detached Ministers and Churches from Orange comprised this New Presbytery, viz:

MINISTERS.

Rev. Robert Burwell,
" George W Ferrill,
" Joseph M. Atkinson,
" John S. Watkins,
" Alexander Sprunt,
" Carr Moore,
Rev. Robt. P. Pell,
" J. N. H Summerell,
" L, C. Vass,
" J. B. Swann,
" W. D. Morton,
" S. H. Isler.

At the same time the Synod of North Carolina transferred from the territory of Orange to the territory of Fayetteville, the COUNTIES of Randolph and Chatham, together with their Ministers and Churches, viz:

MINISTERS.

Rev. G. A. Hough,
Rev. W. F. Thom.

CHURCHES

Also, at the same time the Synod of N. Carolina transferred from the territory of Concord to the territory of Orange, the COUNTIES of Ashe, Alleghany and Wilkes. At this time there were no Presbyterian Minister, and only one Presbyterian Church (Wilkesboro) within the bounds of these three Counties.

8. In 1890, the Synod of North Carolina re-transferred the COUNTIES of Ashe and Wilkes from Orange back to Concord; and also the COUNTY of Randolph from Fayetteville back to Orange. By this action the Churches of Ashboro, Worthville and Calah were again placed upon the Roll of Orange.

9. In 1893 the Synod of North Carolina AGAIN transferred the COUNTIES of Ashe and Wilkes from the territory of Concord to the territory of Orange, and ordered that the Churches of Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro, be placed upon the Roll of Orange.

The Presbytery of Orange, as it now stands, geographically, embraces the following Counties in the State of North Carolina, viz:—Alamance, Alleghany, Ashe, Caswell, Davidson, Durham, Forsyth, Guilford, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Stokes, Surry and Wilkes.

SECTION II.

I. MINISTERIAL ROLL OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

FROM THE FORMATION TO THE PRESENT TIME.

In studying the following Roll, observe—(1.) That the names in italics annexed to the names of members, show the Presbyteries from which they severally came into Orange as ordained Ministers. (2.) That those in Roman letters show the Countries, States or Denominations whence received. (3.) That all names without such designation are the names of members who became such by ordination in the year prefixed to their names. (4.)That a star (*) placed before the date on the right hand, means removal by death in that year. (5.) That if no date is given in the right hand column, it means either that it is unknown, or that the person is still a member of the Presbytery, which may be readily ascertained from the roll of Churches. (6.) That the figure in bracketts () following the name, means the number of times the same person has been received. (7.) That the dates on the left indicate the time of entrance, and on the right the time of departure.

"The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."—Psalm, 112: 6.

MANUAL.

SECOND PART.

STANDING RULES.

STANDING RULES OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

SECTION I.

GOVERNMENT.

Rule 1. The Rules of Parliamentary Order adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, are hereby adopted as Standing Rules for the government of the Presbytery of Orange.

Rule 2 All Standing Rules shall be introduced with these, or some such words, to denote that they are Standing Rules, viz: "Resolved, That it be a Standing Rule, &c."

Rule 3. It shall require two-thirds of all the members present at a regular stated meeting to adopt, suspend, amend or abolish a Standing Rule.

SECTION II.

CHURCH SESSIONS.

Rule 4. It shall be the duty of every Church Session to hold stated meetings at least once during every quarter of the year, and to keep a fair record of all the proceedings of each meeting, and to read and approve the record before it is submitted to the Presbytery for inspection and approval.

Rule 5. The proper matter for Sessional Record shall be as follows, viz :

1. The time and particular place of meeting, and the names of members present, and of the Moderator, should be given; it should also be stated that the meeting was opened and closed with prayer, except when it was not so opened and closed, in which case the reason for the omission should be given for the judgment of the Presbytery.

2. Things done by the session are to be recorded. Things moved and rejected, reports and statements made, but not acted on, are not proper matters for record.

3. Every report to Presbytery is among the things done, because it is adopted by the session, and would naturally have place in the record, but some reports are but duplicates of others. In every case where this is so, the duplicate need not be recorded, but the statistical report, called the Ses sional report, should be recorded in full.

4. Baptisms, Congregational meetings, protracted meetings, etc., are not among the things done by the Session, and ought not to appear among the Sessional records, but the Session may have a line drawn across the pages of their Book, and direct all such historical matter to be recorded below the line.

5. The Session may, by special order, make such things as are noted above a matter of record among their proceedings; in which case the record should begin with some such form of words as this, viz: The Session ordered the following record to be made, etc.

6. The results of Congregational meetings for call of Pastor, or electing other officers, or any business of importance, should be procured by the Session, and recorded in the Minutes of the Session, together with the action of the Session thereon.

7. In general, all things are to be recorded which show, first, the orderly and lawful nature of the meeting, and second, all that the meeting did, and no more.

Rule 8. No exceptions to this Rule will be allowed, except as herein stated.

Every Session shall keep a register of the names of their baptized non-communicants, together with the date of their baptism, and when Certificates of dismission are granted to parents, they shall include also the names of their baptized children. When parents are received on Certificates, in the organization of Churches, the names of their baptized children shall be received with them, and shall be entered on the roll of non-communicants, and in all cases of transfer, the Session, on reception of members, should communicate the fact to the session dismissing them.

Rule 7. It shall be the duty of every church session to appoint representatives, principal and alternate to all the stated meetings of Presbytery and Synod, and in no case will the Presbytery enroll the name of a representative who has not been regularly appointed by his session. And the representative who first takes his seat as member, whether principal or alternate, shall, ordinarily, sit in all the adjourned meetings of the court, following the regular stated meeting. But in the case of an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery during the Sessions of Synod, the Session should specifically appoint the representative Elder in the Synod to sit also as a member of the Presbytery, unless he be already a member of the Presbytery by enrollment at its last meeting.

Rule 8. Church Sessions are required to present their Records for review annually at the Spring meeting of the Presbytery.

Rule 9. Every session is required to forward annually to the Presbytery, at the Spring meeting, a written narrative on the state of Religion in the bounds of the congregation, to be read in the Presbytery, and thereafter placed in the hands of a Committee to prepare a narrative for the General Assembly and the Synod.

The particular subjects to be embraced in the narrative shall be the following, with such additional matter as the Session may deem important or proper to show the Spiritual growth or decline of the Church, viz:

1. Fidelity of Minister, Elders and Deacons.

1. Attendance of the people upon public worship.

3. Prayer meetings.

4. Observance of the Sabbath.

5. Observance of Family worship, and parental instruction

6. Interest in Foreign Missions—Concert of Prayer.

7. The Sabbath-School and Bible Class.

8. Mission Schools, Chapels, &c.

9. Number of additions on profession, &c.

10. Worldly amusements and intemperance

11. Peace and Harmony in the Church.

12. Systematic and regular contributions in the benevolent causes of the Church, as conducted by the Assembly and Presbytery.

It is recommended that the narrative, after its adoption by the Session, shall be read to the Congregation before sending it up to the Presbytery.

Rule 10. Every Session is required to report in writing annually to the Presbytery, at the spring meeting, on the following questions, viz:

1. Whether provision is made for the poor of the Church, so that none are dependent on public Charity.

2. Whether representatives are appointed, as required in Rule 7.

3. Whether provision is made for defraying the traveling expenses of Representative and Minister to the Presbytery and Synod.

4. Whether the Assessment to the Presbyterial fund, and the apportionments to the benevolent causes of the church, and salary promised to the minister, have been punctually paid.

Rule 11. In every case in which a Church reports a failure to pay punctually to its Minister the salary promised, without assigning a satisfactory reason, the Church so failing shall be summoned to appear by its representatives or commissioners before the the Presbytery, and show cause for such failure.

Rule 12. It is expected that each Session shall require the Board of Deacons to keep a Book, wherein shall be recorded a strict account of all the financial matters pertaining to the Congregation, or any other matter belonging to them, and it shall be the duty of the Session to examine this Book and pass upon it at least once a year.

Rule 13. Every Session shall diligently require the Treasurer of the Church to report and transmit promptly to the Treasurer of the Presbytery, all moneys collected for the benevolent causes of the Church as ordered by the General Assembly and the Presbytery.

Rule 14. Every Session is required to give careful attention to the provisions of the Book of Discipline, Chap. 15., Part 2, 3 and 4, respecting the transfer of non-resident members, and the whole number of registered communicants shall always be reported to the Presbytery, and not merely the number residing at the time in the bounds of the Congregation.

Rule 15. Every Session is required to authorize their Clerk to fill out all the blanks sent by the Stated Clerk of Presbytery, and after their approval by the Session, they shall be forwarded to the Stated Clerk before the meeting of Presbytery, or be in his hands immediately after the Presbytery convenes.

SECTION III.

PASTORS, STATED SUPPLIES AND LICENTIATES.

Rule 16. The Presbytery will entertain no Call from, and grant no supplies to any Church in arrears for ministerial services rendered, except in cases in which satisfactory reasons are presented to the Presbytery.—See Rule 11.

Rule 17. Ministers and congregations have no right to change the conditions of a call, and the Presbytery will recognize no such alteration.

Rule 18. Missionary supplies which are sent out from time to time into destitute places are invested with evangelistic authority during their visits, to receive persons into church membership and communion, and to enroll such persons in the church to which they would naturally belong.

Rule 19. The Presbytery asserts and maintains its authority over the relation of Stated Supply. It can be formed only by the consent of the Presbytery, and it can be continued only by a new application to the Presbytery at each spring meeting, or in the interim, it may be formed or continued by the committee or agent of Home Missions, subject to the endorsement of the Presbytery. The relation of stated supply shall in all cases terminate on the 31st of March, each year

Rule 20. All Licentiates under the care of this Presbytery shall be assigned to suitable fields of labor, and they are required to be present at the stated meetings of Presbytery, and to give an account of their labors.

Rule 21. If a Licentiate is necessarily absent from a stated meeting, it shall be his duty to send a written report of the manner in which he has been occupied. But if a Licentiate absent himself without report or excuse for two years from the meetings of the Presbytery, his license shall be recalled.

Rule 22. When a Licentiate is ordained to the full work of the Gospel Ministry, he shall be required to subscribe his name to the "Obligations of Ministers Required at Ordination."

SECTION IV.

COMMITTEES.

Rule 23. The Committees of the Presbytery of Orange shall be classed according to the nature of the duties assigned them, under the four following heads, viz: Special, Standing, Executive, and Examining or Permanent.

I. SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

Rule 24. The Presbytery shall appoint Special Committees in many matters or emergencies of minor importance, or even in many cases of great importance and of more serious character, all of which need to be carefully examined, considered and reported to the Presbytery for final action or approval. In all cases, however, the appointment of such committees shall be for a specific purpose, clearly defined, and which shall, in the judgment of the Presbytery, subserve the interests of the church and accomplish the end in view better than a commission.

II. STANDING COMMITTEES.

Rule 25. Standing Committees shall be appointed by the Moderator at the stated meetings of Presbytery, and they shall continue until the final adjournment of the meeting. To them shall be committed the routine business of the Presbytery, and their reports shall be submitted in writing.

NOTE—The following Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Spring Meeting, viz :

1. On Devotional Exercises.

It shall be the duty of this committee to arrange for the public worship, and other devotional exercises which the Presbytery may appoint to be held.

2. On Calls and Supplies.

This committee shall be composed of five members, to-wit : The Chairman or Agent of Home Missions with two Ministers and two Ruling Elders, to whom shall be referred all matters concerning the change of Pastors and Stated Supplies, and all applications for aid, with instructions to report the same to Presbytery with recommendations.

3. On Installations.

It shall be the duty of this committee to make all necessary arrangements for the Installation of Pastors, and report the same to Presbytery for approval.

4. On Narrative to the General Assembly and Synod.

The report of this committee shall be based upon the written Narratives of the Sessions, and shall be compiled after a careful examination of the same.

5. On Minutes of the Synod.

This committee shall examine the Minutes of the Synod, and report all matters therein requiring the attention of the Presbytery.

6. On Sessional Duties.

This committee shall carefully examine and report on the Reports of Sessions on Sessional Duties.

7. On Systematic Beneficence.

This committee shall prepare a report for the General Assembly, based on the reports of Sessions on Systematic Beneficence. It shall be the duty of this committee to note the omissions of any collection ordered by the Assembly or Presbytery, and to examine the reasons, if any, assigned for the omission, and to recommend judgment thereon for the approval of Presbytery.

8. On Sessional Records.

This committee shall be sub-divided. The roll of churches shall be divided into three sections, and a committee composed of three members shall be appointed to each section. It shall be the duty of these committees to review the Sessional Records, and to note all irregularities, and whatever is not proper under the Constitution and Rules of the Presbytery.

After the books are examined, the three committees shall then meet in committee of the whole, and compare, classify and adjust to a common standard their various criticisms and exceptions. A report shall then be made to the Presbytery by some member of the whole committee, and only such exceptions as have been sustained by a majority of the whole Committee, should be reported to the Presbytery.

9. On Nominations.

This Committee shall be composed of five members, and shall make nominations for the Committee of Home Missions before each annual election. Nominations for other Committees and vacancies may be referred to this Committee by special order of the Presbytery.

10. On Leave of Absence.

This Committee should carefully keep in mind the business of the Presbytery, and grant no request for leave of absence except for good and sufficient reasons

NOTE—The following Standing Committees shall be appointed at each Fall Meeting, viz :

1. On Devotional Exercises.
2. On Calls and Supplies.
3. On Installations.
4. On Minutes of the General Assembly.
5. On Nominations.
6. On Leave of Absence.

III. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEES.

Rule 26. Executive Committees shall be appointed by the Presbytery at its stated meetings, and shall continue for one year from the time of appointment. They shall be composed of one or more members, according as the Presbytery may direct. In cases where only one person constitutes the committee, he shall be called "Agent." as distinguished from "Chairman," in other cases.

NOTE—The following Executive Committees shall be appointed by the Presbytery at each Spring Meeting, viz :

1. On Education for the Ministry.

This committee shall be composed of three members, and shall be appointed annually at the spring meeting. They shall report in writing to the Presbytery semi-annually, but shall give prominence to their report at the fall meeting, by making it full and explicit in relation to each candidate under our care.

This committee shall be charged with the oversight of all the unlicensed candidates under the care of the Presbytery, and no candidate shall receive aid from the Education Committee before he places himself under the care of the Presbytery.

This committee should keep themselves informed of the deportment, diligence and progress, religious as well as literary, of all our candidates, by correspondence with professors of the college and seminary; and by judicious inquiry of ministers, elders, or other persons, and endeavor to ascertain their profitableness for the ministry while engaged in teaching, mission work, colportage, or such like occupations, during their intervals of study. They are required also to recommend the continuance of every candidate who is a beneficiary, as such, or not, according to their judgment, and they shall report of all this matter of their superintendence.

In view of these matters enjoined upon the committee, it shall be required of every candidate to write at least twice every year (say during the months of August and March), to the Chairman of this committee, giving to him full information on the following points, viz :

—The candidate's name in full, and post-office at the time of writing, and what are his studies, and in what classes, if at a college or academy.

—What sort of religious work he is engaged in, as to Sabbath schools, Bible classes, prayer meetings and such like, for his own spiritual improvement and for a good influence upon others.

—Whether he specially avails himself of the opportunities afforded him for cultivating ease and readiness in public speaking.

—Whether during vacations, or while engaged in teaching or in other honorable ways of procuring pecuniary means, he tries to be active in the discharge of his Christian duties, in church attendance, in social prayer meetings, and in other ways, as is expected of a candidate for the ministry.

In all these matters he is expected to write freely and fully to the Chairman of the Presbytery's committee.

And in order that each candidate may know these instructions, it shall be required of the Chairman of the committee to procure from the Stated Clerk copies of the Manual, and to send a copy to each candidate, calling his attention to the foregoing instructions.

2. On Home Missions.

This committee shall be composed of five members, and shall be appointed by the Presbytery annually at the spring meeting, and they shall report to the Presbytery in writing, through the Chairman, semi-annually at the stated meetings of Presbytery.

These semi-annual reports shall be in full of all the operations of the committee, and shall be accompanied, under the direction of the committee, by a full report from each evangelist and home missionary within our bounds.

And if deemed advisable by the committee, a popular meeting shall be held in the interest of Home Missions, at such hour of the third day as the Presbytery may direct, at each stated meeting of the Presbytery.

If, however, a popular meeting can not he conveniently held at both the stated meetings during the year, and if more prominence is to be given to one semi-annual report than to the other, the preference in each case shall be given to the fall meeting.

It shall be the duty of this committee, under the direction of the Presbytery, to have the oversight and conduct of the entire work of Home Missions within the bounds of the Presbytery.

And under the term "Home Missions," and in charge of this committee, shall be included all the missionary and evangelistic enterprises of the Presbytery, the nomination of supplies to Home Mission fields, and the relief of disabled ministers and families of deceased ministers. Also, the ways and means and oversight, under the plan of the Assembly and the direction of the Presbytery, of raising our just apportionments for the cause of Home Missions conducted by the Synod and Assembly, known as "Synodical Home Missions" and "Assembly's Home Missions."

It shall be the duty of this committee to keep themselves fully informed of all the plans and schemes and inter-workings of the Assembly, Synod and Presbytery; and to make every effort, which, in their judgment, may seem practicable, to supply the vacant churches which are unable to support a minister, and the missionary fields within our bounds, with the regular ministry of the Word; and to secure systematic and liberal contributions to the great cause of Home Missions, in all its departments, from every church and missionary station within the bounds of the Presbytery.

It shall be the duty of this committee to counsel and advise with the evangelists and missionary supplies, and to encourage and help them in their labors in every legitimate way possible; and also to require of them from time to time full reports of their labors, which shall be submitted to the Presbytery under the direction of the Chairman.

It shall also be the duty of this committee to nominate ministers as Temporary Supplies, who shall preach at least once, or hold protracted services at vacant churches, between the time of appointment and the next stated meeting of the Presbytery.

3. On Colored Evangelization.

This committee shall be composed of three members, and shall be appointed by the Presbytery annually at the spring meeting, and shall report to the Presbytery in writing, through the Chairman, semi-annually at the stated meetings of Presbytery.

It shall be the duty of this committee to have the oversight and superintendence, under the direction of the Presbytery, of the entire colored work of Evangelization within our bounds.

The duties of the committee shall be somewhat similar to those of the Committee on Home Missions, and they shall use every means possible, which their judgment may suggest, to advance the cause of Christ among the colored people, especially those of our own faith and order; and to this end they shall try to awaken greater interest and secure larger contributions from the people for this cause.

It shall be the duty of this committee to counsel and encourage and help the colored evangelists in every possible legitimate way, and to require from them full reports of their labors.

4. On Foreign Missions.

This committee shall be composed of three members, two ministers and one ruling elder, and shall be appointed by the Presbytery annually at the spring meeting.

This committee shall endeavor to keep themselves fully informed of all the great missionary movements and schemes of the church at large, and shall recommend to the Presbytery such action as in their judgment may seem best, to promote the interests of this great cause and to secure liberal contributions from all the churches. They shall also aid in every way possible the circulation of the "Missionary," or any other missionary literature which may tend to awaken interest among all the people.

It shall be the duty of this committee, through the Chairman, to report annually to the Presbytery in writing at the fall meeting; and to present such statistics and information from all the churches, as may best show the financial condition, and interest manifested in this great cause

And it shall be a standing order of this Presbytery that a verbal report of this committee shall be heard at the spring meeting, at such an hour of the second day as the Presbytery may direct, and in connection with the report, a popular meeting shall be held under the direction of the committee, in the interests of Foreign Missions.

5. On Sabbath Schools.

This committee shall be composed of one member, who shall be appointed annually at the spring meeting, and he shall be called the Presbyterial Agent of Sabbath Schools.

He shall prepare a tabulated report for the General Assembly according to the Assembly's form, based upon the reports of the sessions.

He shall bring to the attention of the Presbytery all matters of interest or importance concerning Sabbath Schools, as to work, literature, &c., and offer such recommendations for adoption, which his judgment may suggest.

He shall also arrange for the holding of Sabbath School Conventions, when ordered by the Presbytery to be held, and prepare suitable programmes for such occasions.

His report shall always be presented at the spring meeting.

NOTE—The following Executive Committees shall be appointed at each Fall Meeting, viz:

6. On Publication and Colportage.

This committee shall be composed of one member, styled the Agent of Publication and Colportage, who shall be appointed annually at the fall meeting.

He shall be corresponding member of the Assembly's Committee, and shall have the supervision of the Colportage work within the bounds of the Presbytery.

He shall look out and employ, whenever the Presbytery deems it expedient, suitable agents to carry our books to the doors of our people, and to distribute tracts, Bibles, and small volumes among the destitute and ignorant throughout our bounds.

He shall report all collections in his annual report, and be a medium of knowledge and help to vacant churches and Sabbath schools in recommending and procuring Bibles, and suitable libraries of books, and religious literature from the Central Committee of Publication.

He shall also act in the interest of the "North Carolina Presbyterian," and if possible embody in his report information as to the paper among our people.

He shall report annually of all these matters at the fall meeting of the Presbytery.

7. On Church and Christian Education.

This committee shall be composed of three members, and "shall be charged with the duty of giving information upon, and enlisting interest in, Church and Christian Education."

It shall be the duty of this committee to report to the Presbytery annually, in writing, at the fall meeting.

8. On Church Erection.

This committee shall be composed of three members, and shall be appointed annually at the fall meeting.

The duties, plans, purposes, &c., of this committee are fully set forth in the action creating it.—See Printed Minutes, Vol. II., pp. 79 and 139

It shall be the duty of this committee to report to the Presbytery, in writing, annually at the fall meeting.

9. On Bible Cause.

This committee shall be composed of three members, and shall be appointed annually at the fall meeting.

It shall be the duty of this committee to endeavor to secure liberal contributions from all the churches for this cause, and to aid in every way possible of putting a Bible into the hands of every person.

The Chairman shall act as corresponding member of the American Bible Society, and of our own Central Committee of Publication, and shall give such information in reference to securing and supplying the Bible to all the people as may seem best.

This committee shall report to the Presbytery annually, in writing, at the fall meeting.

IV. EXAMINING OR PERMANENT COMMITTEES.

Rule 27. The Presbytery shall appoint, from time to time as necessity or circumstances may demand, certain Examining Committees, which shall be known and considered as Permanent Committees; that is, they shall continue from year to year without change, except as necessity demands a change. The Moderator, however, shall have power to fill all vacancies for the time being, while members of the committees are unavoidably absent, and to add the names of ruling elders present when required.

The duty of these committees shall be to carefully examine and report upon that which is committed to them, and they shall be as follows:

1. On Examination of Candidates.

The Presbytery shall be divided into eight committees composed of three ministers each, and one ruling elder to each who shall be appointed by the Moderator. These committees shall have assigned to them the following subjects in their order, for the examination of candidates for licesnre, viz:

1st. Com. Ancient and Modern Geography, and General History.

2. Com. Latin, Latin Exegesis and Critical Exercises.

3rd. Com. Greek, Hberew and Logic.

4th. Com. Mathematics, and Elements of the Physical Sciences, such as Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronomy, Geology, &c.

5th. Com. Mental Philosophy and Moral Science

6th. Com. Theology—Natural and Revealed.

7th. Com. Ecclesiastical History.

8th. Com. Church Government and the Sacraments.

All these Committees except the last three shall conduct their examinations privately, and report to the Presbytery their recommendations; but the last three Committees shall conduct their examinations in open Presbytery, after which each member of the Presbytery shall have the opportunity to ask questions.

2. On Grouping Churches.

This Committee shall be appointed by the Presbytery, and shall be composed of two Ministers and two Ruling Elders, together with the Chairman or Agent of Home Missions, who shall be ex-officio Chairman.

"They shall take into consideration all the vacant fields of the Presbytery, and present at each meeting of the Presbytery a well digested and definite report, covering the whole field."

3. On Assessments and Apportionments.

The Chairman or Agent of Home Missions, the Stated Clerk, and the Treasurer of the Presbytery shall constitute this Committee.

It shall be their duty from time to time to revise the schedule of assessments and apportionments to all the churches; to recommend increase or reduction in special cases; and to fix the amount on new Churches, all of which is subject always to the approval of Presbytery.

4. On Treasurer's Book.

This Committee shall be called the "Auditing Committee," and shall be composed of two members who shall be Elders or Deacons.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to receive from the Treasurer his accounts and vouchers as soon as possible after the first day of April of each year, and to carefully examine the same, and report to the Presbytery at each Spring meeting.

SECTION V.

TRUSTEES.

Rule 28. The Presbytery shall elect from time to time Trustees or Boards of Trustees, of "Orange Presbytery," and of "Davidson College." The term of office and the duties devolving upon the Trustees shall be as herein set forth under each head, as follows:

1. Of Orange Presbytery.

The Presbytery shall elect a "Board of Trustees of Orange Presbytery," which Board shall be composed of five persons who are members of the Presbyterian Church, in good and regular standing; and the term of office shall be indefinite, the Board being considered permanent.

It shall be the duty of these Trustees to hold in trust for the Presbytery all property in Church lots and buildings, not otherwise secured, and all legacies and bequests which may be willed to the Presbytery in behalf of charitable and other objects under its control.

2. Of Davidson College.

The Presbytery of Orange having accepted the proposition of Concord Presbytery to take part in the Government of Davidson College, will regularly, and at the proper times, elect Trustees of that Institution.

The number of Trustees to be elected shall be three and the term of office to each shall be five years from date of election.

They shall report to the Presbytery annually at the Fall meeting.

SECTION VI.

PRESBYTERIAL OFFICERS.

Rule 29. The Officers of the Presbytery are the Moderator, the Stated Clerk, and the Treasurer, whose terms of office are indefinite or permanent, except the Moderator who is elected at each Stated meeting and continues in office until the next stated meeting when a new Moderator is elected Either a Minister or a Ruling Elder may be elected Moderator, and in the absence of the Moderator at any intervening meeting, the last Moderator present shall promptly take the Chair and preside over the meeting.

The duties of these officers shall be as herein set forth under their respective heads, as follows:

I. MODERATOR.

1. In choosing a Moderator the persons to be voted for shall first be nominated. After the nominations are all made, the roll is to be called by the Stated Clerk, and no person is to be voted for unless he has been previously nominated. A majority of the votes cast shall decide the election.

2. At each Stated Meeting the Moderator shall call on all Ministers present who are marked as absentees, that they may state their reasons for previous failure to attend. If no motion is made expressive of disapprobation, the reasons assigned shall be deemed satisfactory.

3. When a Candidate for the Ministry is licensed to preach the Gospel, the Moderator shall, in the name of the Presbytery, present him with a copy of the Holy Scriptures.

4. The further particulars and full duties of the Moderator are embodied in the Parliamentary rules of the General Assembly (See Parliamentary Rules), which are recognized as the adopted rules of Orange Presbytery.

II. STATED CLERK.

1. The Stated Clerk shall keep a full and fair record of all the proceedings of Presbytery, and submit the same annually to the Synod for review.

2. The Stated Clerk shall prepare, after the form herein prescribed, and cause to be printed, a docket of business to be submitted to the Presbytery, and he shall send a copy to each Minister at least ten days before the stated meeting.

3. The Stated Clerk shall keep constantly on hand a suitable number of printed blank forms, as prepared by the General Assembly's committee, for the use of Presteries and Church Sessions; and he shall send to each Church Session between the first and tenth days of March of each year all the necessary blanks for reports required from the Church Sessions. He shall also forward to the Stated Clerk of the Synod, and to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, such reports as are required, together with the Narrative on the state of religion, after their adoption by the Presbytery.

4. The Stated Clerk shall publish a notice of the time and place of each stated meeting of the Presbytery at least four weeks before the time of meeting, and he shall, as soon as practicable after the meeting, furnish an abstract of the proceedings for publication in the North Carolina Presbyterian.

5. The Stated Clerk shall cause the minutes of each stated meeting, together with all the intervening meetings, to be published, with such exceptions as a majority of the Presbytery may direct; and when the minutes are published in pamphlet form, he shall carefully file a copy of the same in the archives of the Presbytery, and he shall send a copy to all the members of the Sessions in the Presbytery, and to each of the licentiates and candidates, and also a copy to the Treasurer and to the "Presbyterian Historical Society," in Philadelphia, for preservation.

The Stated Clerk shall report at each stated meeting of Presbytery, a full list of all absentees who have not sent their reasons for absence, and of all licentiates, sessions or congregations which have failed to comply with the Standing Rules of the Presbytery; and also a list of all the vacancies in the committees or appointments of the Presbytery to be filled, and of the delinquent churches which fail to pay their dues. He shall be required to write to each delinquent church and inform them of their debts and request payment.

7. The Stated Clerk shall have charge of the business of making arrangements with the various railroad companies for reduced rates of travel to members attending the meetings of Presbytery.

8. The Stated Clerk shall receive a salary of $50 per annum, and his necessary expenses, incurred in obeying the injunctions of Presbytery.

III. TREASURER.

1. The Treasurer shall receive, and keep accurate accounts, of all the funds contributed by the churches or individuals to the benevolent causes recommended by the Presbytery, and he shall promptly forward the same, by order of the respective committees or agents, to their proper destination.

2. The Presbytery will raise annually by assessment on the churches a fund to be called the "Presbyterial Fund." The Treasurer shall receive all moneys collected for this fund, and of this fund he shall pay annually: To the contingent fund of the General Assembly the annual assessment on the Presbytery; the quota of this Presbytery to the contingent fund of the Synod; the annual traveling expenses of the commissioners to the General Assembly; the contingent expenses of the Presbytery, namely, salary of the Stated Clerk, postage, printing, the necessary expenses of the Clerk and Treasurer, and for whatever other purpose the Presbytery may direct.

3. The Treasurer shall report the state of the treasury at each stated meeting, and submit his book for examination, through the Auditing Committee, at each spring meeting; and he shall forward his book and vouchers to the Auditing Committee, as soon as possible after the first day of April of each year.

SECTION VII.

MISCELLANEOUS.

I. Rules and Standing Orders.

Rule 30. Commissioners to the General Assembly shall be elected at the stated meeting in the spring, and they shall be nominated at least one day before the election.

Rule 31. During the stated sessions of the Presbytery, recess shall be taken for the purpose of attending worship with the congregation.

Rule 32. Whenever a minister of this Presbytery is removed by death, a special committee shall be appointed to prepare a sketch of his life and character, to be reported to the following meeting of Presbytery, which shall, after approval, be recorded in the Book of Biographical Sketches kept by the Stated Clerk.

Rule 33. From time to time, as may seem expedient, the Presbytery shall have historical sketches of its churches prepared, and after approval, copies of the same deposited with the Presbyterian Historical Society, of Philadelphia, for preservation.

Rule 34. The various committees and agents of the Presbytery are instructed to draw on the Treasurer for an amount sufficient, from each department, to defray the expenses of their respective agencies.

Rule 35. All moneys collected by the churches for all benevolent causes are to be sent direct to the Treasurer of Orange Presbytery, and not to the several Treasurers of the Assembly's Executive Committees.

Rule 36. All deeds to church property, made to the Trustees of the Presbytery, shall, after being duly recorded in the counties where the property is situated, be deposited with the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery for safe-keeping.

(Standing Orders.)

Order 1. It shall be a standing order that a portion of the morning, commencing at 10 o'clock of the second day of the stated sessions of the Presbytery, shall be spent in devotional exercises.

Order 2. It shall be a standing order to hear a verbal report, at the spring meeting of Presbytery, from the Committee on Foreign Missions, and to hold a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions at such hour of the second day as the Presbytery may direct.

Order 3. It shall be a standing order to hear the report of the Committee on Home Missions at 11 o'clock on the third day of each stated meeting of Presbytery.

RULES OF PARLIAMENTARY ORDER.*

OF OPENING THE SESSIONS.

1. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the court stands adjourned; shall immediately call the members to order; and on the appearance of a quorum, the session shall be opened with prayer.

2. If a quorum be assembled at the hour appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator or oldest minister present, shall take the chair without delay.

3. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

4. After calling the roll, and marking the absentees, the minutes of the last sitting shall be read, and if requisite, corrected.

OF THE MODERATOR.

5 It shall be the duty of the Moderator to preserve order, and to conduct all business before the court to a speedy and proper result.

6, He is to propose to the court every subject of deliberation that comes before it.

7. He may propose what appears to him the most regular and direct way of bringing any business to issue.

8. He shall always announce the names of members rising to speak, prevent them from interrupting each other, and require them in speaking always to address the chair.

*These rules were adopted by the General Assembly for its own guidance, and are generally adopted by the lower courts for the same purpose, but of course form no part of the Constitution of the Church.

9. He shall prevent a speaker from deviating from the subject, and from using personal reflections.

10. He shall silence those who refuse to observe order.

11. He shall prevent members leaving the court without his permission.

12. He shall, when the deliberations are ended, put the question, and call the vote.

13. In all questions he shall give a clear and concise statement of the object of the vote, and the vote being taken, he shall declare how the question is decided.

14. He shall carefully keep notes of the orders of the day, and call them up at the time appointed.

15. He may speak to points of order in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide questions of order subject to an appeal to the court, without debate, by any two members.

16. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the court, and the question on such appeal shall be taken without debate.

17. It is his duty to appoint all committees except in those cases in which the court shall decide otherwise.

18. When a vote is taken by ballot, or by yeas and nays, he shall vote with the other members; in other cases, when the court is equally divided, he shall possess the casting vote. If he be not willing to decide, he shall put the question a second time, and if the court be again equally divided, and he decline to give his vote, the question shall be lost.

19. He may call any member to the chair, to preside temporarily

OF THE CLERK.

20. As soon as possible after the commencement of the first session of every court, the Clerk shall form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator; and whenever any additional members take their seats, he shall add their names in their proper places to the said roll.

21. He shall immediately file all papers in the order in which they have been read, with proper endorsements, and keep them in perfect order.

OF THE ORDER OF BUSINESS.

22. After the reading of the minutes of the previous day, the following order of business shall be observed:

First—The receiving of

(a) Communications addressed to the body;

(b) Reports of standing committees;

(c) Reports of select committees;

(d) Resolutions; each of which papers may, by unanimous consent, be taken up immediately on presentation, but if objection be made it shall be docketed.

Secondly—The unfinished business in which the court was engaged at the last preceding adjournment, in preference to the orders of the day; but such unfinished business may, on motion without debate, be laid on the table, to proceed with the special order.

Thirdly—As soon as the special order and the unfinished business are disposed of, the business on the docket will be called; but motions to elect officers, to appoint committees, and to enroll members, shall always be in order, unless a member is speaking, or the court is voting.

OF MOTIONS.

23. A motion must be seconded, and afterward repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; but this shall be no bar to explanation of the object of any motion by the mover, provided he does not exceed five minutes; but every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

24. The mover of a resolution is entitled to the floor if he so desire, after the Moderator has stated the question.

OF WITHDRAWAL OF MOTIONS.

25. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon, but not afterward without the leave of the court.

ON LIMITATIONS OF DEBATE.

26. Motions to lay on the table, to docket, to take up business, and to adjourn, and the call of the question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the court.

OF PRIVILEGED QUESTIONS.

27. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received unless to adjourn, to docket, to lay on the table, to amend, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, or to commit; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

OF "THE QUESTION."

28 When any member shall call for "the question," the Moderator shall, without debate, put the vote, "Is the court ready for the question?" If the call be seconded by a majority of the members present, the vote shall immediately be taken on the pending qnestion, whatever it may be, without further debate.

OF DIVISION OF THE QUESTION.

29. Is a motion under debate contains several parts.

any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

OF AMENDMENTS.

30. An amendment may be moved on any question, as also an amendment to the amendment, which shall be decided before the original proposition; but two distinct amendments to the pending question shall not be entertained at the same time, whether moved as substitutes for the whole matter, or as changing any part thereof.

31. One proposition may be substituted for another, when the substitute covers the whole matters of the original, and to insert the substitute

OF RECONSIDERATION.

32. A question shall not be reconsidered at the same session of the court at which it was decided, unless by the consent of a majority of the members who were present at the decision, and unless the motion to reconsider be made by a person who voted with the majority.

33. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed shall not be again called up during the same session of the court, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

OF SPEAKERS.

34. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first.

35. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

OF INTERRUPTIONS.

36. No speaker shall be interrupted unless he be out of order, or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

OF VOTING.

37. Members shall not decline voting, unless excused by the court.

38. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

39. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake; in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote.

40. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless it be required by one-third of the members present; and every member shall vote "yea" or "nay," unless excused by the court. In a judicial case, members thus excused shall not be allowed a vote in any of the subsequent proceedings relating thereto.

41. In all elections it shall require a majority of the votet cast to elect.

OF COMMITTEES.

42. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee and preside therein; and in case of his absence, or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

OF PRIVATE SESSIONS.

43. All courts have a right to sit in private on business which, in their judgment, ought not to be a matter of public speculation.

OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

44. Every court has a right to resolve itself into a committee of the whole, or to hold what are commonly called interlocutory meetings, in which members may freely converse together without the formalities necessary in their ordinary proceedings. In all such cases the Moderator shall name the member who is to paeside as chairman. If the committee be unable to agree, a motion may be made that the committee rise, and upon the adoption of such motion the Moderator shall resume the chair, and the chairman of the committee shall report what has been done, and ask that the committee be discharged, which being allowed, the matter shall be dropped. If the committee shall agree upon the report to be made, or have made progress in the same without coming to a conclusion, the committee may rise, report what has been done, and if the case require, may ask leave to sit again; or the committee of the whole may be dissolved, and the question considered by the court in the usual order of business.

OF DECORUM.

45. Without permission, no member of a court, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

46. When more than three members of the court shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

47. If any member act in any respect in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

48. No member shall retire from any court without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the court.

OF CASES UNPROVIDED FOR.

49. All cases that may arise, not provided for in the foregoing rules, shall be governed by the general principles of parliamentary law.

OF CLOSING THE SESSIONS.

50. The Moderator of every court, above the church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
